1. Student union that represents both undergraduate and postgraduate students at university level

The Student Executive Board of Universitas Padjadjaran (BEM Unpad) is a student organization at the university level that serves as a platform for aspirations, coordination, and the driving force behind student activities. BEM acts as a bridge for both undergraduate and postgraduate students in conveying complaints, feedback, and other aspirations to the university leadership or faculty deans. In addition, BEM also represents Universitas Padjadjaran students in important forums such as meetings with university leaders, rectorate forums, and national student forums.

The election of the BEM president is conducted through a program called **PEMIRA (Pemilihan Umum Raya)**, which is a direct election for the BEM president by students. All active students have the right to vote, and typically, there is more than one pair of candidates for president and vice president. The election process includes a series of activities such as campaigning, candidate debates, and the dissemination of each candidate's vision and mission, leading up to the voting day. Voting is carried out both offline and online, and the candidate pair with the highest number of votes is elected as the BEM president and vice president.

Universitas Padjadjaran supports and recognizes student organizations at Campus including their election. Every year the main student organization, namely BEM KEMA UNPAD as a student body, holds an election to decide the leaders of the organization. The election is conducted by online (e-voting) and supported by campus administration system. Evoting can be accessed through www.students.unpad.ac.id/pacis . During the election, there are some activities such as 1) drawing of serial numbers for candidates for chairman and deputy chairman; 2) independent campaign; 3) open debate; 4) public test of candidates for the board of trustees of WM Unpad; 5) e-voting, and 6) determination of chairman and deputy chairman.
